

EDUCATION SERIES

NGO REPRESENTATIVES VISIT YOUR FRENCH CLASS

Education Series is back for the 10th anniversary of our annual series of events France-Atlanta.

Representatives from local NGOs working in French speaking countries will visit your French class, sharing with your students their field experience. Students will get a chance to learn more about humanitarian issues and discover the use of French language in a professional setting.

Public: Metro Atlanta high school, college and university French class.

Date: October 31 – November 15

A minimum of 25 students attending is required in high school and 15 students in college or university.

If you would like to have a NGO representative visit your class, please submit this application form by September 30 at education@consulfrance-atlanta.org .
